CHAPTER 5 – PAPER BOATS

Meena walked towards the stream near the bamboo bridge. She bent a little and put a paper boat in the water. It sailed down the stream swiftly. Meena was delighted. She went on putting several paper boats in the stream.

CHAPTER 5 – PAPER BOATS

As the boats floated down the stream, she saw a naughty boy pushing the boats into the water. Meena stared at the boy angrily. He did not care for Meena's angry face. She shouted "Stop!" But the boy did not stop.

Chapter 5 - Paper Boats

“Why are you overturning the paper boats?”
Meena asked angrily.

“Because it is fun,” replied the boy.

“It may be fun for you, but those are my paper boats” said Meena. “So, you just stop overturning my boats.”

The boy thought for a minute and said, “I will not do it again, but I also want to play. Can you help me?”

Meena said, “I have enough paper. You can make boats for yourself.”

Chapter 5 - Paper Boats

The boy answered, "I don't know how to fold the paper to make boats."

Meena said, "That's easy, I will help you." She showed him how to make the boats.

Meena took out coloured paper of different sizes. She showed the boy how to fold and re-fold the paper to make a boat. The boy watched carefully. Then he took a piece of paper and started to make a paper boat. Soon a few boats were ready.

Meena gently put her boats in the stream. The boy put his boats in the stream too. The boats sailed down the stream. Both enjoyed watching the boats.
