

NCERT Solutions for Class 9 English Moments Chapter 9: The most accurate NCERT Solutions for Class 9 English Chapter 9 The Accidental Tourist are what we are providing to you, along with the solutions to all of the Class 9 English Supplementary Reading Moments problems. Our team of subject-matter specialists has carefully chosen these NCERT Solutions for Class 9 English, ensuring that students receive the most common answers to the book's questions.

The Class 9 NCERT Solutions will aid students in understanding the book's chapters more fully. The solutions are written under the CBSE board's requirements. Students can more easily refer to them as a result, which helps them do very well on exams. By using the link below, you may also get the NCERT Solutions in printable PDF version for free, so you can study whenever and wherever you choose.

NCERT Solutions for Class 9 English Moments Chapter 9 Overview

In his amusing tale "The Accidental Tourist," the author parodies his own self-handling techniques. He claims that he struggles to function in the real world. He finds it incomprehensible how individuals accomplish tasks that appear to be easy for them.

He talks of a lot of times when his clumsiness gets the better of him, such when he wears light-colored trousers and realises at the end of the day that he sat on chewing gum, ice cream, cough medicine, etc. or leaves 14 inches of his coat behind while getting in and shutting the door.

All of the significant questions and answers for each topic and chapter are included in the NCERT Solutions for Class 9. To do well on the board exams, students can simply consult and download the solutions PDF for free.

NCERT Solutions for Class 9 English Moments Chapter 9

Question 1. Bill Bryson says, "I am, in short, easily confused." What examples has he given to justify this?

Solutions: In a nutshell, Bill Bryson explains, "I am easily confused." He provides various instances to support the assertion. For example, he might search for the restroom in a movie theatre and find himself standing in an alley on the wrong side of a self-locking door. He claims that his area of expertise was going back to hotel desks two or three times a day to inquire about the number of his room.

Question 2. What happens when the zip on his carry-on bag gives way?

Solutions: A 14-ounce tin of pipe tobacco, magazines, a passport, English money, film, newspaper cuttings, and other loose materials were all wildly hurled out of the bag when its side snapped open. His paperwork fell to the ground, cash landed on the floor, and he cut his finger on the zip. His fingers started to bleed.

Question 3. Why is his finger bleeding? What is his wife's reaction?

Solutions: He cut his finger on the zip, which is why it is bleeding. His wife was not irate or frustrated. Rather, she gave him a bewildered look and said that she could not believe he made a career off of that.

Question 4. How does Bill Bryson end up in a "crash position" in the aircraft?

Solutions: The author once leaned forward to tie a shoelace while flying. Simultaneously, the person seated in front of him reclined his seat all the way back. At that moment, the writer found himself fixed in the crash position. He was only able to free himself by catching the man seated next to him with his leg.

Question 5. Why are his teeth and gums navy blue?

Solutions: The author was on a plane, sucking attentively on the end of his pen and jotting down significant thoughts in his notepad. There was a leak in the pen. The author now had navy blue teeth, gums, tongue, chin, and mouth.

Question 6. Bill Bryson "ached to be suave". Is he successful in his mission? List his 'unsuave' ways.

Solutions: No, his attempt to appear dapper has failed. He uses his charm in many of his actions. At the end of the day, he would wear light-colored trousers and discover that he had spent the day chewing gum, ice cream, cough syrup, and motor oil. He would get up from dinner tables looking as though he had just experienced an incredibly localised seismic event.

Question 7. Why do you think Bill Bryson's wife says to the children, "Take the lids off the food for Daddy"?

Solutions: The reason Bill Bryson's wife tells the kids to "take the lids off the food for Daddy" is because she worries that if Bill does so, he would get into more unpleasant situations. She was aware that her spouse and these kinds of circumstances frequently occurred, particularly when he travels.

Question 8. What is the significance of the title?

Solutions: "The Accidental Tourist" is a highly meaningful and accurate title. Throughout the entire narrative, the author provides multiple examples that demonstrate his status as an unintentional tourist. He is a traveller who frequently encounters amusing mishaps and issues. Even though he travels a lot, he nevertheless makes careless errors when performing tasks that others execute with apparent ease.

Benefits of NCERT Solutions for Class 9 English Moments Chapter 9

Fast Preparation

You'll get the correct solutions to the questions in the exercises and a thorough understanding of the chapter when you use NCERT Solutions Class 9 The Accidental Tourist. Every response in Ch 9 Moments Class 9 Solutions is written by knowledgeable educators who are familiar with the CBSE structure. These are the responses to the questions that the test supervisors want to know from students.

Practicing Responding to This Chapter's Questions

English Ch. 9 It's challenging to answer every question in The Accidental Tourist since you have to maintain the humorous tone throughout. You will need to use NCERT Solutions for Class 9 English Moments: The Accidental Tourist to help you practise writing the answers.

Proper Revision

You can study for the test and review the chapter during the exam by using the NCERT Solutions of Class 9th English Chapter the Accidental Tourist. If you have limited time, you can quickly finish the syllabus by using the solutions provided.

Instead of spending time constantly reviewing Ch 9 English Class 9 Moments, rely on the excellent answers offered by the best mentors.