

NCERT Solutions for Class 4 English Marigold Chapter 2: NCERT Solutions for Class 4 English Marigold Chapter 2 The Little Fir Tree is a heartwarming story about a small fir tree that longs to have different kinds of leaves instead of its needle-like ones. The tree wishes for gold, glass, and green leaves, but each new type of leaf brings unforeseen problems.

Eventually, it realizes that its original leaves were best. The story conveys a valuable moral about self-acceptance and the dangers of envy. Through engaging storytelling, the chapter teaches children to appreciate what they have and embrace their uniqueness, fostering a sense of contentment and happiness.

NCERT Solutions for Class 4 English Marigold Chapter 2 Overview

NCERT Solutions for Class 4 English Marigold Chapter 2 The Little Fir Tree is a charming story with a meaningful moral lesson. The story revolves around a small fir tree that is unhappy with its needle-like leaves and wishes for more beautiful ones. It first wishes for golden leaves, but they are stolen by a man. Then, it wishes for glass leaves, but these break when the wind blows. The fir tree next wishes for green leaves, like other trees, but soon realizes that goats eat them. Finally, the tree wishes for its original needle-like leaves back, realizing they were best suited to it all along.

The story teaches children the importance of self-acceptance and contentment. The fir tree's journey of constantly wanting something else helps students understand that being envious or desiring what others have might not always lead to happiness. Through its simple yet engaging narrative, the chapter encourages children to appreciate what they already have and embrace their uniqueness.
