Working with the Poem

Question 1. Fans don't talk, but it is possible to imagine that they do. What is it, then, that sounds like the fan's chatter?

Answer: The noise produced by the fan's motor with less oil sounds like the fan's chatter.

Question 2: Complete the following sentences.

(i) The chatter is electrical because _____.

(ii) It is mysterious because _____.

Answer: (i) The chatter is electrical because the noise is being produced by the electrical motor of the fan.

(ii) It is mysterious because we cannot understand what the fan is saying.

Question 3: What do you think the talking fan was demanding?

Answer: The talking fan was demanding some oil. It was seeking the attention of the people at home to put oil into the motors. Once it got oiling, it became silent.

Question 4: How does an electric fan manage to throw so much air when it is switched on?

Answer: An electric fan manages to throw so much air when it is switched on as it has an electric motor which rotates and makes the three blades of the fan move round and round at a specified speed.

Question 5: Is there a 'talking fan' in your house? Create a dialogue between the fan and a mechanic.

Answer: Mechanic: Hey! I just realised that you are a talking fan.

Fan: Oh thank God! Yes, I do talk. It's just that people don't listen.

Mechanic: Alright, so tell me. What is the matter?

Fan: I need some oiling. My motor is struggling to rotate.

Mechanic: Oh. I will put oil in the motor now.

Fan: Thank you so much!

NCERT Class 7 English Unit 6 Poem Important Questions

- 1. What was the mystery behind the talking fan, as referred to in the Unit 6 Poem of NCERT Solutions for Class 7 English?

Fans don't speak. But the electrical chatter produced by the rotating fans feels like it's talking. Nobody quite hears or understands what it said, and it doesn't matter too.

- 2. What happens if someone understood the talking fan as in Unit 6 Poem of NCERT Solutions for Class 7 English?

When the fan seeks the attention of somebody, they oil the whirling motor of the fan. Later, the fan becomes quiet and smooth.

NCERT Class 7 English Honeycomb Poem Chapter 6 Summary

The NCERT Solutions for Class 7 English Honeycomb Chapter 6 poem is called "Mystery of the Talking Fan." This poem tells the mysterious tale of a fan and its constant noise, something we often overlook. Any ceiling fan, at any time, tends to make a familiar, irritating sound, but we're so accustomed to the comfort it brings that we ignore the annoyance.

The poet, Maude Rubin, vividly portrays the fan's noise as a persistent part of our lives, even though it can be bothersome. Despite its annoyance, we can't escape it; we must endure and become accustomed to it. The poet likens the fan's noise to human chatter, as if the fan is trying to communicate with us.

In the NCERT Solutions for Class 7 English, the poem "Mystery of the Talking Fan" discusses the peculiar behaviour of a fan, likening it to human communication. The poet closely observes the fan's movements and imagines it longing to speak to humans. By personifying the fan, the poet attributes it with human-like qualities, such as the desire to converse. The noise emitted by the fan is likened to "electrical chatter," and the poet unravels the mystery surrounding it.

According to the NCERT Solutions for Class 7 English Honeycomb, the poet unravels the mystery by oiling the fan, which ceases its chatter. This suggests that regular maintenance, like oiling, can prevent the fan from making noise and appearing to talk.
