NCERT Class 6 English A Pact With the Sun Summary

The Class 6 English book "A Pact with the Sun" comprises 10 short stories penned by various authors, each aiming to impart a moral lesson to the readers. Chapter 8 of this collection shares the same title as the book itself and is authored by Zakir Hussain, an economist and politician.

Originally written in Urdu, the story revolves around a young girl named Saeeda, whose mother is suffering from severe illness. Struggling with fever, cough, joint pain, and overall discomfort, her mother's condition worsens due to inadequate treatment. Confined to a dimly lit room for days, her illness takes a toll on the family.

Upon the advice of relatives, they consult a specialist who prescribes medication and recommends exposure to sunlight and fresh air. In the absence of sunlight, Saeeda fervently prays for her mother's recovery. Eventually, amidst a struggle between the rays and the clouds, sunlight prevails, leading to her mother's eventual recovery.
