NCERT Solutions for Class 6 English A Pact With the Sun Chapter 8 Summary

The story revolves around Saeeda's mother, who has been suffering from various ailments. Despite consulting numerous physicians, her condition does not improve.

The quacks advise her to avoid normal food and stay confined in a closed room, devoid of sunlight and fresh air. However, their advice proves futile, and Saeeda's mother realizes the importance of proper medical consultation.

Driven by the desire to save her mother's life, Saeeda seeks the help of a specialist, even selling her ornaments to afford the costly medication. The specialist prescribes effective medicines but emphasizes the significance of fresh air and sunlight for her recovery.

Despite facing opposition from some quarters, Saeeda's mother adheres to the specialist's advice and shifts to a bigger room with open doors and windows.

Despite facing setbacks due to cloudy weather, Saeeda remains hopeful and prays for sunshine. Her faith is rewarded when she spots a ray of sunshine late in the afternoon. Despite objections from others, she pleads with the departing sunrays to return the next day with warmth and brightness.

The sunrays, committed to their promise, overcome obstacles and reach the earth, dispelling the clouds and allowing Saeeda's mother to bask in the sun.

The miraculous effect of the sunlight and fresh air, coupled with the specialist's advice, leads to Saeeda's mother's complete recovery. Her pale face regains its glow, symbolizing the transformative power of nature and medical guidance.

In summary, the chapter highlights the importance of proper medical consultation, the significance of sunlight and fresh air for health, and the unwavering determination of a daughter to save her mother's life.
