Working with the Poem

Question 1. What are the games or human activities which use trees, or in which trees also 'participate'?

Answer: The games or human activities which use trees or in which trees also participate are the following:

- Trees are used by children to hide while playing hide and seek.
- Children make tree houses to play in.
- Adults have their tea parties under the shade of the trees.
- Adults also use them as a scene to paint.

Question 2: (i) "Trees are to make no shade in winter." What does this mean? (Contrast this line with the line immediately before it.)

(ii) "Trees are for apples to grow on, or pears." Do you agree that one purpose of a tree is to have fruit on it? Or do you think this line is humorous?

Answer: (i) Trees provide shade during the scorching summer. During winter, trees shed their leaves as people enjoy the sun during winters. Hence, trees are to make no shade in winter.

(ii) Yes, I agree that one purpose of a tree is to provide fruits and eatables. Humans receive a lot of food from trees.

Question 3: With the help of your partner, try to rewrite some lines in the poem or add new ones of your own, as in the following examples.

Trees are for birds to build nests in.

Trees are for people to sit under.

Now try to compose a similar poem about water, or air.

Answer: Air is for people to breathe in.

Air is for kites to fly high in the sky.

NCERT Class 7 English Honeycomb Poem Chapter 5

1. What do trees make mothers and fathers say, as mentioned in Unit 5 Poem of NCERT Solutions for Class 7 English?

The trees make mothers say, "What a lovely picture to paint!" and make fathers say, "What a lot of leaves to rake this fall!". Trees are so important for living beings for many things.

2. What are a few of many things that the trees are meant for and to whom, as discussed in Unit 5 Poem of NCERT Solutions for Class 7 English?

Trees are for birds, and children, to make tree houses in, to swing swings on, for the wind to blow through, for kids to hide behind in the game 'Hide and Seek', for apples and pears to grow on, adults to have tea parties under, for kites to get caught in, etc. Further, trees are to make cool shade in summer and are to make no shade in winter.

3. What does the phrase "to rake this fall", as in Unit 5 Poem of NCERT Solutions for Class 7 English mean?

The word 'fall' (in American English) means the same as autumn when trees shed their leaves. 'To rake' is to sweep or put away. Hence, the phrase means that it's quite a job to take heaps of dead leaves daily to keep the place clean.

NCERT Solutions Class 7 English Honeycomb Poem Chapter 5 Summary

The poem "Trees" in the NCERT English book Chapter 7, Chapter 5, penned by Shirley Bauer, highlights the numerous benefits trees offer. It underscores how trees provide shade, fruits, and various advantages for everyone.

Trees cater to the needs of all creatures on Earth—children, birds, and even serve as spots for building treehouses and playing hide-and-seek. People can enjoy tea parties and flying kites under trees, benefiting from their cool shade in summer and shelter in winter. Trees yield fruits like apples and pears, and their wood is used for crafting various useful items.

The sight of trees captivates mothers, inspiring thoughts of painting their beauty. In autumn, as leaves fall and cover the ground, fathers are concerned about collecting and clearing them away.

Through this poem, we learn about the vital role and benefits of trees. It urges us to recognize the importance of preserving trees, emphasising the responsibility of every individual to plant and protect them.
