Exercise Questions (Page 3)

Question 1:

How did the two baby birds get separated?

Answer:

The two baby birds lived with their mother in a nest in a tall and shady tree. One day, there was a big storm with thunder, lightning and rain. A big, heavy branch hit the nest and killed the mother bird. The strong wind blew the two baby birds away to the other side of the forest and separated them from each other.

Question 2:

Where did each of them find a home?

Answer:

One of the baby birds came down near a cave where a gang of robbers lived. The other baby bird landed outside a rishi's ashram a little distance away. Thus, they found two different homes.

Question 3:

What did the first bird say to the stranger?

Answer:

The first bird saw the stranger, i.e., the King. He called the robbers to come quickly and rob the King of his jewels and his horse. The bird had indirectly warned the stranger of the consequences of sitting near the cave.

Question 4:

What did the second bird say to him?

Answer:

The second bird welcomed the King to the ashram. He requested the stranger to go inside the ashram, take some rest and make himself comfortable. He further added that the first bird was his brother, who had made friends with robbers, so he talked like them.

Question 5:

How did the rishi explain the different ways in which the birds behaved?

Answer:

The king was surprised about the difference in behaviour between the two birds. The rishi explained that the first bird imitated the same words that he heard from the robbers, whereas the second bird repeated the words that he had always heard at the ashram. This implies that the difference in ways of behaviour between the two birds was the result of the company in which they lived.

Question 6:

Which one of the following sums up the story best?

- (i) A bird in hand is worth two in the bush.
- (ii) One is known by the company one keeps.
- (iii) A friend in need is a friend indeed.

Answer:

- (ii) One is known by the company one keeps.

I.SHORT ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

How did different companies affect the character and behaviour of the two birds?

The two birds were brothers. But they got separated when a storm blew. One came down near a cave where robbers lived. The other landed outside a rishi's ashram. The former learnt the language of the robbers. The latter learnt to welcome the strangers sweetly. Thus, their company shaped their behaviour.

What amazed the king as he stood near the cave?

The king heard a big brown bird on the tree, calling out to the robbers to come and loot the stranger.

How did the other bird greet the king?

The other bird welcomed the king to the ashram. Gently he requested the king to make himself comfortable in the ashram.

II.LONG ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

1. Narrate the tale of two birds in your own words.

Once there lived a mother bird in a forest. She had two new-born chicks. One day a storm came with thunder and lightning. The mother bird was killed. But the baby birds were blown away to the other end of the forest. One lived in the company of robbers. The other stayed with a rishi. One day a king heard them speak. The one asked the robbers to loot and kill the king. The other noble bird welcomed him sweetly in the ashram. They behaved differently because of the company they kept.

2. How did the king reach the rishi's ashram? Why did the two birds behave with the king differently?

The king came to the forest to hunt a deer. He rode after the game and lost his way. Tired, he stood near a cave. One bird informed the robbers to rob the traveller of his jewels and his horse. The king sensed danger and rode away. Soon he came to a rishi's ashram. He sat down in a tree's shade. He was amazed to hear another bird's voice. It requested him to enter the ashram and rest. The two birds were real brothers, but one became a crook in the company of robbers. The other became gentle in the company of the rishi. The holy man told the king that one's good or bad company makes one noble or wicked.

Important Questions on NCERT Solutions for Class 6 English Supplementary Chapter 1

1. How do the Two Birds get Separated From Each Other?

In the tale called "A Story of Two Birds," the author tells about a mama bird living in a forest. After a few days, two new baby birds hatched. Then one day, a big storm hit with heavy rain. Since their home was in a tall tree, the strong wind knocked down the tree, leading to a sad event. The mama bird passed away, leaving the baby birds alone, though not too far from each other. They were then taken care of by different groups in different places.

2. How did the two baby birds get separated in Chapter 1 of NCERT Class 6 Supplementary English?

The two little birds resided alongside their mother in a nest nestled within a lofty and sheltering tree. One fateful day, a fierce storm unleashed its fury with booming thunder, flashing lightning, and pouring rain. A large, weighty branch crashed into the nest, tragically ending the mother bird's life. The powerful gusts of wind carried the two baby birds to different parts of the forest, separating them from one another.

3. According to the Topic " A Tale of Two Birds" How Does the Company Affect One's Behaviour Enormously?

Here the author depicts a story of two birds where their mother died in a clap of thunder and storm and the two newborn birds were detached from each other. One of them takes place in a tree near a robber cave and he spends his days according to his surrounding environment. On the other hand, the remaining one made his home in a tree near a rishi's ashram and was influenced by his surroundings. Once the king came into the forest for the game of prey and got tired. While talking rest beneath the tree, the king heard the bird's voice as he invited the robber to snatch the king's horses' jewellery. So the king left the place and came to a tree near the ashram where the other bird invited him to enter the ashram. So after returning from rishi he told the king that both of them are affected by their company and behave like that. So here we came to know good company turns a man into good and bad one makes him bad. There is a great role for the company to make a man's character as well as behaviour.

4. How did the rishi explain the different ways in which the birds behaved in Chapter 1 of NCERT Class 6 Supplementary English?

The king was surprised about the difference in behaviour between the two birds. The rishi explained that the first bird imitated the same words that he heard from the robbers, whereas the second bird repeated the words that he had always heard at the ashram. This implies that the difference in the ways of behaviour between the two birds was the result of the company in which they lived. The solutions can be accessed both in chapter-wise and exercise-wise format for a better understanding of new concepts. This will also lessen the revision time of each chapter and help students to obtain a better academic score in the board exam.

5. What did the king hear from the first bird and from the second bird?

The first bird lived in a cave where robbers lived. So, the bird asked the robbers to hurry up and take away the jewels from the king. However, the second bird lived in Rishi's ashram so the bird told the king to rest, make himself comfortable and asked for water and then told him to wait for Rishi in the ashram. Find more questions and answers of this chapter from the link Ncert Solutions for Class 6 English.

6. What did the king tell Rishi about the incident that happened with him?

The king told the Rishi that one bird spoke about robbery since he has always heard robbers talking about that only. And the second bird asked about water and told the king to take a rest since he had heard only these things in the ashram. The king was amused about the birds who look alike but behave so differently with him.

7. What is the moral of the story?

The moral of the story is that one is known by the company he keeps. In other words, the character of an individual can be influenced a lot by the companion he/she has. The first bird lived with the robbers and he had a mindset similar to the robbers so he tried to rob the persons, whereas the second bird was with the Rishi so he had the mindset of the Rishi. It protected the king from danger, gave him shelter and water in the ashram and helped him. Find more questions and answers of this chapter from the link Ncert Solutions for Class 6 English.
