Q2. What do you understand by the word 'government'? List 5 ways in which you think Government affects your daily life.

Answer:

The system put in place to govern a state or a community is referred to as a government. Only a certain group of the society is bestowed the right to frame laws and the authority to enforce them and establish the system of social control.

There are certain decisions and activities of the government that can affect my life. Here are five ways I think the government affects my life-

1. It decides where roads and other infrastructure are to be built
2. Its decisions regarding the different programmes on social welfare
3. Its decisions regarding the price of important goods and commodities like onions and petrol
4. Ensuring internal security and protecting from external hostilities and maintaining cordial relations with friendly nations
5. Ensuring quality healthcare for all

Q3. Name two essential features of a democratic government.

Answer:

All democratic governments are characterised by certain features. Two essential features of a democratic government are:

1. The government always remains answerable to the people.
2. Regular elections are held where the people elect their representatives who govern the nation.

Q4. What was the suffrage movement? What did it accomplish?

The right to vote is called suffrage. Women and the poor would be denied the right to vote in the USA earlier. After a prolonged fight for their rights, the movement gained strength during the course of World War I. The movement saw the dawn of success in the USA in 1920 and in 1928 in the UK.

Q5. Gandhiji strongly believed that every adult in India should be given the right to vote. However, a few people don't share his views. They feel that illiterate people, who are mainly poor, should not be given the right to vote. What do you think? Do you think this would be a form of discrimination? Give five points to support your view and share these with the class.

I feel that denying the right to vote to every citizen defeats the very purpose of being a democracy. Here are my five points in support of granting voting rights to all, i.e., ensuring universal suffrage.

1. In democracies, all should have the right to vote, even the poor and the illiterate.
2. The Indian Constitution sees all the citizens of India as equal.
3. In a democracy, an elected government should work for all the citizens going beyond serving only the rich and the literate.
4. The fate of the majority shouldn't be decided by the minority
5. Since being poor is not a crime, the poor shouldn't be denied the right to vote. All should have voting rights.
