NCERT Class 6 English A Pact With the Sun Chapter 2 Summary

Chapter 2 - The Kind Mongoose is a section of Class 6 English Supplementary Book, 'A Pact with the Sun.' The main character of The Kind Mongoose is a mongoose, which becomes an unexpected pet for a farmer and his wife.

The story starts with a farmer and his wife adopting a baby mongoose to be a companion for their young son. Over five to six months, the mongoose grows up while the farmer's son remains a baby, sleeping in his cradle.

One day, the farmer's wife goes to the market and asks her husband to watch over their son, reminding him not to leave the child alone with the mongoose. However, the farmer decides to go meet his friends, leaving the mongoose and their son together. When the wife returns, she finds the mongoose covered in blood and assumes it has harmed their child. Angered, she throws a basket at the mongoose.

Later, upon entering the house, she discovers her child unharmed, playing in the cradle. She realises that the mongoose was actually protecting her son from a snake. Unfortunately, by the time she goes back to the mongoose, it has already passed away. The farmer's wife deeply regrets her hasty actions.

Thus, the mongoose proves to be truly kind-hearted. This chapter teaches us not to rush to conclusions and to avoid making decisions in anger.
